Semester Exam Policies

- Exams are due to your evaluator two weeks prior to the week of semester exams: May 13
- Study guides will be provided to students two weeks prior to semester exams: May 13
- The week prior to semester exams is considered a “dead week” meaning no new material is introduced and no homework is given during this week. The week will be used to review for the exam and to recover grades.
- All teachers will give semester exams in their courses. The exams count as twenty-five percent of the semester grade.
- Students who are absent for their semester exams will receive an incomplete grade for the semester. Students will be allowed to make up the exam when they return to school, but they must make arrangements with the principal.
